REPORT NO.

1. On 11 August 1943, Wojciech Wrzosek, Polish Minister to Brazil, returned to Brazil from Poland on the Italian ship SS Italia. He traveled in the company of Polish Minister to Argentina Szumowski, who did not stop over in Rio de Janeiro.
2. According to the general opinion of the Polish Legation and Consulate staff, the conference in Poland was a failure as far as Wrzosek was concerned. He was very coolly received and found it hard to contact a number of officials upon whom he wished to call. He complained of the treatment he received and stated that he did not even have a car placed at his disposal. [REDACTED]
Comment: This tends to confirm the information in [REDACTED] to the effect that Warsaw was dissatisfied with Wrzosek's handling of Polish affairs in Brazil.)
3. Wrzosek brought with him from Warsaw orders for the promotion of Czeslaw Rybinski, who has been in temporary charge of the Polish Consulate. Rybinski has now been given a permanent commission as Consul in Rio de Janeiro.
4. Wrzosek also brought a promotion for Antoni Sliwinski, who had been agitating to be returned to Poland as he felt his post insignificant. Sliwinski has been officially made Rybinski's deputy and granted the right to sign consular papers in view of the fact that he is considered a hard worker and well acquainted with his duties. Temporarily, however, Sliwinski has been assigned part of the duties previously performed by Natalia Benislawska, whose replacement is not expected to arrive very soon.
5. Jan Wdowiak, who operates the radio receiver for the Polish Legation, is scheduled to return to Poland in the near future. His replacement will reportedly leave Poland by the end of August [REDACTED]
6. Ignacy Sachs of the Legation is acting as quasi-official Press Attache and has recently received a considerable raise in salary as a reward for his activity in handling propaganda work for the Legation. He has been in constant contact in his work with Wladyslaw Czapka and is reported to fear that Czapka's replacement Eusebio Dworcin, will relieve him to a great extent of this propaganda work on his arrival in Rio.
